Tailored Suits In Blue

It now appears that blue is the color of the new season. Not surprising. Blue is practicable, and it has always been more or less popular. Many suits of blue serges are ready for you at Kerr's, But that is not all we have to say about them. We anticipated the vogue some forty days ago, and ordered the suits. Those were forty days of grace. Just sufficient time to have the suits made our way, carefully, and according to our specifications. Time, an important factor in everything, is especially important in tailoring. Takes time to do suits as you want them done, and to give them the perfection of finish and the thoughtful touches that are, after all, the soul of woman's apparel. Were we to order blue suits today, they would arrive after much delay on some indefinite day in the nebulous future and they would be blatant of the hestic hurry of their manu-

Now, we wish to direct your attention to the qualities of the serges. LIFE in them, "spring" and solid worth-virtues arising from the pure wool. Such fabrics will "hold" their color, and they will render a good account of themselves in SERVICE.

Hunter, the author. of the measure, Murray and Taylor. On a direct vote to puos it the resolution was killed with only three dissenting votes:

The house this morning passed a scente bill making slight amendments to the home ownership bill prissed some weeks ago, and appropriates $10,000 for the purposes of placing the previous bill into effect. The house the passed the bill, as amended, providing for deputies to county trensarers and fixing their salaries.

The bill by Senator Fields of the senate, creating the Oklahoma illiterncy commission, for the gathering of statistics relative to illiteracy in the state was passed finally by the house. This is in line with action taken by several states, and when applied it is believed will point a way for the decrease of illiteracy in the
